

Island Connections 5th Annual
Chowder and Chili Chowdown for Rides
Saturday, March 11, 2023 from 5-7pm at the Atlantic Oceanside
Participant Registration Form

___ Individual or ___ Team of 2 (Team Name: _____)

Participant Name(s): _____

Address: _____

Phone Number: _____ Email: _____

Tell us about your entry (circle one in each category, see descriptions below)

Chowder or Chili

Traditional or Vegetarian or Vegan

Amateur or Professional (Restaurant or Chef)

Anything you'd like to tell us about your dish: _____

Participant Guidelines:

Traditional Chowder – soup or stew, often prepared with milk or cream. Thickened with broken crackers, crushed bisuit or roux. Typically containing fish, clams or corn with potatoes and onions.

Traditional Chili – slow-simmered stew usually containing meat, tomatoes and a form of heat (chilies, chili powder, hot sauce, etc.)

Vegetarian chowder or chili – Contains no meat or meat products.

Vegan chowder or chili – Contains no meat or meat products, dairy or animal proteins (i.e. eggs, etc.)

Arrival Time: 4:00pm at the Atlantic Oceanside Conference Center

Arrive with prepared and heated dish (for safety keep temperature above 140 degrees F)

You need: at least 2 gallons to serve, crock pot, extension cord, pot holders and small ladles.

Bring 8.5 x 11" sheet with your ingredient list

There is no fee for individual participants or teams of 2. Encourage supporters to attend as paying guests.

Island Connections judges will choose winners for each category. Attending public will vote for People's Choice award. Winners will be announced during the event.

By signing I agree to follow the above guidelines:

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Email completed form to Sharon Linscott at director@islconnections.org

Questions? Email or call Sharon at 207-288-4457